

The Alexandria Gazette.

VOLUME LXVI.

ALEXANDRIA, VA., FRIDAY EVENING, JUNE 16, 1865

NUMBER 129.

PUBLISHED (DAILY) BY

EDGAR SNOWDEN, SR.

OFFICE—No. 104, King street, over French's Book Store.

A gentleman in New Haven, who, before the war, owned a brick building on Main st. in Richmond, which was occupied below as a store and above as a dwelling house, was then offered $16,000 for the premises, but asked $17,000. At the great fire in Richmond this building was burned down. On going to Richmond, recently, he sold the ground to an Irish baker for the sum of $15,000 in gold.

It is said that 4,000,000 bushels of wheat are awaiting shipment to the Eastern markets from points west, north and northwest of La Crosse, Wisconsin, and that 1,000,000 bushels are still in the hands of the farmers of that region. Large quantities have suffered from dampness and heating.

At San Francisco the San Salvador piracy case was concluded on the 7th instant, but the decision has not yet transpired. The parties charged with the attempt to seize the steamer Colon had been indicted in the County Court for grand larceny. Efforts were still secretly made, we are told, to induce parties in California to enlist in the Emigration Association for Mexico.

The crevasse on the Mississippi river, eight miles above Carrollton, which threatened to do so much damage to New Orleans, has been closed, but there were serious fears that another crevasse would be formed in the same vicinity.

Dr. Gwin, we are again told, has arranged his Sonora project, which only awaits the signature of Maximilian. His office is now defined to be that of Director General of Emigration to the States of Sonora, Chihuahua, Durango and Tamaulipas, and, in the execution of the duties he is charged to perform, he is to have the support of eight thousand French troops.

Congress was well warned that whiskey would not stand a tax of $2 per gallon—but it was hard work to stop it from levying $2.25 and $2.50. The consequence of $2 has been constant smuggling from Canada and the Provinces, and immense frauds in Illinois particularly. The seizures in Illinois will amount, in forfeitures, it is said, to nearly a million of dollars.

T. M. Delaney, a citizen, who was arrested at Augusta, Me., some time ago, by Col. L. C. Baker, special detective of the War Department, for forging soldiers' enlistments, has been convicted and sentenced to be imprisoned for 10 years and pay a fine of $45,000, and be held until the said fine is paid. Delaney has been sent to Concord, N. H., to be imprisoned.

All the honorably discharged soldiers have been granted the privilege of retaining their arms at the following low rates: Muskets, all kinds, with or without accoutrements, six dollars: Spencer carbines, with or without accoutrements, ten dollars: all other carbines and revolvers, eight dollars; sabres, swords, with or without belts, three dollars.

Clarence A. Seward, of New York, and nephew of Secretary Seward, has received the appointment of Acting Assistant Secretary of State during the indisposition of Mr. Frederick Seward.
